INVOLVEMENT OF FAMILY & OTHER SUPPORTIVE ADULTS

Parents, families and other caring adults who:

- Maintain high expectations that build upon the young person's strengths, interests, and needs and that foster their ability to achieve independence and self-sufficiency
- Assist and support them toward adulthood and are active in their lives
- Access information about employment, further education and community resources
- Actively participate in transition planning with schools and community partners
- Access medical, professional and peer support networks
